Philosophy 113/Intro to Philosophy: Philosophy of Religion
Professor Daniel Howard-Snyder/howardd@wwu.edu

- * An eye-opening experience in faith and philosophy!
- * I liked it so much and I would take it again!
- * As a person who believes in God, the course gave me a new perspective and new tools. It also let me see the perspective of others, which helped me immensely.
- * Out of all the classes I took this quarter, this is the one I did not expect to love. But I really loved it so much! It expanded my questions on topics I didn't think I had to question. I liked doing it at my own pace. I also liked how we got to take the quizzes twice and Professor Howard-Snyder gave us enough time to take them.
- * I loved all the content. Amazing! The way it was taught made it easier to understand. Professor Howard-Snyder was open to meeting and discussing things so I could understand better.
- * I really enjoyed that the lectures were broken up so that I didn't have to watch them in one long sitting, or if I did want to I could just watch them back to back.
- * This course was all-around well done. The information in the lectures was interesting and easy to comprehend. At times, it was extremely complex, but Professor Howard-Snyder kept it basic, informative, and engaging.
- * Having access to all the information from the beginning gave me time to review multiple times, prior to taking the quizzes.
- * I appreciated how all the video lectures were offered at the start of the quarter, so I could get the work done on my own time. I also liked how each quiz could be taken twice so I had the chance to improve my score.
- * The video form for the lectures allowed subtitles which was helpful.
- * I like the consistent style of teaching, it is easy to follow the teacher's train of thought, and the content was very interesting.
- * The video lectures were easy to view, and the quizzes were based on them, so I could go back and find the answers in the lecture if I needed to. I also like how all the modules and quizzes were open at the start of the quarter so I could get ahead if I wanted to.
- * I give props to Prof Howard-Snyder for making the class easy to navigate online!
