

Resources for Clinical Supervisors

Approved Clinical Supervisor (ACS) Program through the Center for Credentialing & Education
<https://www.cce-global.org/credentialing/acs>

Recorded Presentations:

AMHCA (American Mental Health Counselors Association) Home Studies
($10 to $15 for AMHCA members, $20 to $30 for nonmembers; approved for CE by NBCC)

<https://www.amhca.org/viewdocument/home-study-fall-summit-21-11-pow>
Power Dynamics in Clinical Supervision: Identity, Values, Ethics & Competency

<https://www.amhca.org/viewdocument/home-study-fall-summit-21-07-rac>
Racial Trauma Considerations for Ethically Working With Culturally Diverse Clients and Supervisees

<https://www.amhca.org/viewdocument/home-study-fall-summit-21-08-cou>
Counselor Mental Health: Protecting Against Secondary Trauma and Burnout

Readings:

Best Practices in Clinical Supervision: Evolution of a Counseling Specialty. (2014).

By L. Dianne Borders, Harriet L. Glossoff, Laura E. Welfare, Danica G. Hays, Lorraine DeKruyf, Delini M. Fernando & Betsy Page. Published in The Clinical Supervisor.

<https://doi.org/10.1080/07325223.2014.905225>

A Conceptual Framework for Incorporating Mentoring in the Clinical Supervision of International Counseling Students. (2021). By Daniel Bonnah Amparbeng & Yegan Pillay. Published in International Journal for the Advancement of Counseling. <https://rdcu.be/cLeRv>

Using the Secondary Traumatic Stress Core Competencies in Trauma-Informed Supervision. (2018) The National Child Traumatic Stress Network.

From the website: This resource “discusses the importance of quality supervision that organizations can provide to staff members at risk for secondary traumatic stress...It is intended to be a developmental assessment for supervisors, to help identify areas of need, and to guide the user to resources to strengthen those areas of competency.

<https://www.nctsn.org/resources/using-secondary-traumatic-stress-core-competencies-trauma-informed-supervision>