In the past several years, alumni and former WWU faculty and staff have combined to sponsor several endowed scholarships. Numerous awards will be granted by the Sociology Department in Spring Quarter 2023 for the next academic year (2023-2024). Award amounts may vary but range between $500-$4,500.

Ingeborg Paulus Scholarship:
This scholarship is awarded to a sociology major with a superior academic record.

Lucky Tedrow Demography Scholarship:
This scholarship is awarded to a sociology major with a superior academic record and an interest in the subfield of demography.

Blalock Scholarship for Outstanding Community Service:
This scholarship is awarded to a sociology major who has accomplished significant community service. Academic record is also considered.

Teresa LaFreniere Scholarship:
This scholarship is awarded to a high achieving sociology major. Preference is given to students over the age of 30 or students of any age with dependents. Preference is also given to those with financial need.

Sociology Alumni and Faculty Scholarship:
This scholarship is awarded to an outstanding Sociology major based on a combination of achievements inside and outside the classroom.

Academic Year Tuition Waiver
One academic year tuition waiver will be awarded to a high achieving student (must be a full-time student).

Sociology Summer Internship Tuition Waiver:
One tuition waiver for a summer internship (Soc 371) will be awarded. Enrollment in Soc 371 is required.

These are cash awards to be credited toward tuition and processed through the university. To be eligible, recipients must be Sociology majors enrolled as full-time students during at least one quarter during the 2023-2024 academic year. The recipients of these awards will be announced after thorough reviews by the department.

Qualified students who are interested should complete this application and return all materials via email to seth.feinberg@wwu.edu (See page 2 for application details). Please submit only one application, even if you are applying for multiple awards. Application deadline is Friday, April 28th by 5:00 pm.

2. Respond to the following questions:

a. Please list your significant activities and/or honors including internships, community/campus service, employment, or research (alone or with a faculty member).

b. Please provide a brief statement (two paragraphs) describing your interest in sociology and how this relates to your educational and career goals.

c. Blalock Community Service Scholarship only: Please provide a statement detailing the breadth and depth of your community service activities.

These scholarships are merit-based, however we may consider need in distinguishing between two equally qualified applicants for any of these scholarships. As such, you have the option to include additional information below.

d. You may provide a brief statement (one paragraph) discussing any additional factors the committee may take into consideration in evaluating your application. Examples could include family responsibilities, barriers you have faced in attaining your education, and/or community involvement.

3. Email an attachment of a writing sample that represents what you believe to be your best scholarly work to date. This could be a paper written for a Sociology class or a class in another discipline.

4. Lastly, Attach a copy of your academic history to your application (unofficial is acceptable).

5. Combine all three documents (your application, the writing sample, and your academic history) into a single email and send it to seth.feinberg@wwu.edu
