The 3rd British Columbia Sport, Health, & Exercise Psychology Symposium (BC-SHEPS) will be hosted by the Psychology of Sport, Physical Activity, and Health Collaborative (PSYPAC) in the School of Kinesiology at the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, Canada on May 3rd and 4th, 2019.

BC-SHEPS is a student-led conference for undergraduate and graduate students and postdoctoral fellows that provides an opportunity to develop presentation skills, receive valuable feedback on research projects, and network with students and professors in the field of sport, health, and exercise psychology.

Fellow students in the disciplines of sport, health, and exercise psychology are invited to submit abstracts for an oral conference presentation. Presentations can be:

- Complete projects
- Review papers
- Thesis proposals
- Works in progress

We hope you will be able to join us in Vancouver for this great knowledge exchange opportunity and we look forward to receiving your abstract!

Visit the BC-SHEPS website, www.bcsheps.ca, for more information about the conference, abstracts, and presentations. Abstract submissions will open February 1, 2019. The deadline to submit is March 22, 2019. Please submit abstracts via the survey link on the BC-SHEPS website.