You may have heard the term 'standard English,' a term that is often used in education and other public institutions.

The term has many different definitions...

So, how would you define 'standard English'?

Leave us a sticky note!