DON'T BE A "GRAMMAR SNOB"

"Proper" grammar is a social construct. Next time you're about to correct someone's grammar, consider your privilege.

'Speak good English'

'No excuses!'

'Actually...'

'I think you meant...'

RACIAL PRIVILEGE

There are many dialects of English, and each dialect has its own grammar structures. Speaking 'standard' English is highly attributed to white speakers, so calling a nonstandard dialect incorrect is preferring 'white' English.
