

Department of Psychology
Western Washington University
Faculty Grants
2013 and 2014

Bedi, R. (2014) Summer Teaching Grant, Western Washington University, $6,000.

Carroll, J. B. (2013-2014). Mapping Hepatic Dysfunction in Huntington's Disease, Huntington Society of Canada, $135,863.

Carroll, J. B. (2014-2016). Peripheral mechanisms of wild type and mutant Huntingtin function, CHDI Foundation, $577,120.

Dinnel, D. (2013). Mini-grant, Research and Sponsored Programs, Western Washington University, $900.

Grimm, J. (2013). Research and Sponsored Programs, Western Washington University, $1,800.

Finlay, J. (July 2010-July 2014). R15 MH091630. Behavioral and Neurochemical Effects of Cortical NMDA Receptor Dysfunction: Implications for Schizophrenia, $373,000.

Jantzen, K. BCS-1338144 (2013-2016). NSF Major Research Instrument award entitled: "MRI: Acquisition of a Transcranial Magnetic Stimulator to Enhance Research and Undergraduate Education" (Finlay, J., Jantzen, M. and Symons, L. are Senior Investigators), $197,530.

King, J. (2014). Traditional Native American Approaches to Mental Health Diagnosis and Treatment, Research and Sponsored Programs, Western Washington University, $1,000.

King, J. (2014). Northwest Indian College (NWIC) Behavioral Health Research Network (BHRN) Program, American Indian Higher Education Consortium, $90,000.

Lehman, B. (2013). Grant-in-Aid, Research and Sponsored Programs, Western Washington University $2,500.

Lehman, B. (2014). Mini-grant, Research and Sponsored Programs, Western Washington University, $1,000.

McLean, K. (2014). Research and Sponsored Programs, Western Washington University, $2,400.

Purgason, L. (2014). Exploring Ethnic Identity Expression through Social Media. Summer Research Grant, College of Humanities and Social Sciences, $6,000. Principal Investigator: Lucy Lewis.

Rose, J. (2014). Pilot project award: Investigating the mechanisms of CaMKII translocation following local stimulation, Research and Sponsored Programs, Western Washington University, $2,770.

Rose, J. (2014). Investigating cooperative effects of nicotine and toluene exposure in drug-seeking and addiction. Summer Research Award, Research and Sponsored Programs, Western Washington University, $6,000.

Sattler, D. N. (2011-2013). Co-Principal Investigator, Resilient Bellingham Consortium, Emergency Management for Higher Education Program (184T), U.S. Department of Education, Award Number: Q184T100147 (funding included to support one psychology graduate student for 2 years), $512,742.

Sattler, D. N. (2013-2014). Principal Investigator, Super Typhoon Haiyan: Effects of Repeated Exposure to Multiple Disaster Threats, Offices of the President and Provost ($3,000), Office of Research and Sponsored Programs ($1,000), Center for Cross-Cultural Research, $2,000.

Trimble, J. (2013). Self-Silencing among Punjabi Women: The Interplay of Cultural Adaptation, Depression and Domestic Violence, and Measuring Self-Silencing in Japan and the United States Using a Computer Based Version of the Own Categories Attitude Measurement Approach. Mini-grants from Western's Office of Research and Sponsored Programs to conduct research titled, $2,000.