

East Asian Studies

Virtual Poster Presentation

EAST 302 – Methods & Materials in
East Asian Studies

Spring Quarter 2021

JUNE 2, 2021

- ◆ 8:30-8:55 Travis Felver “The Power of Cute”
- ◆ 8:55-9:20 Kaia Lane “Goose Fathers and Cram Schools: Economic Inequalities in the Demand for Education in South Korea”
- ◆ 9:20-9:45 Rishi Nair “Emptiness: The ‘Not-thus’ Teaching of Chan Buddhism and Advaita Vedanta”

JUNE 4, 2021

- ◆ 8:30-8:55 Maya Konz “Behind America’s Representation of Chinese and Chinese Americans in Film”
- ◆ 8:55-9:20 Natalie Payne “Globalization of South Korean Cuisine”
- ◆ 9:20-9:45 Natalie Tietz “The Spread of the Korean Wave in the United States: through K-Pop and K-Dramas”

Completion of EAST 302 meets a graduation requirement for the EAS major students. Traditionally, poster presentations are given on campus, in the Collaborative Space in Miller Hall. This year’s presentations are being delivered in an online format. EAST 302 is taught by the program director, Professor Massimiliano Tomasi.